What is it you would like to be remembered for?

As for me, I would like to be remembered as a man of God. A righteous man is a justified man. A justified man is treated as if he never sinned. Noah was one who found grace in the eyes of Jehovah (Gen. 6:8). What does it take to find grace in the eyes of Jehovah? Cannot everyone find grace? Yes, everyone can find grace in the sight of God if he wants to. Noah found grace because he wanted to please God. Not everyone wants to please God. They do not care about God, his word, or what he wants them to do. One like this will never find grace and become a righteous man. There will be some who are reading this who never will care what God wants them to do. But there may be some who want to be justified in the sight of God. One is either justified or not justified, righteous or unrighteous. There is no middle ground with God (cf., Matt. 12:30). God desires that all men be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth (1 Tim. 2:4; cf., 2 Pet. 3:9). Matthew 7:12 says, "In everything, therefore, treat people the same way you want them to treat you, for this is the Law and the Prophets."
