The election process is over... for now. For that I thank God. I am so done with the whole process. And I welcome the respite from it. Now, maybe we as the children of God can focus on the tasks at hand, namely being about the Lord's business. I share with you today two things, one a piece written by a friend of a friend, Josh Patrick. The second written by the Apostle Paul. My prayer for us all is that God will become all that we think of, say and do, and that our lives will more closely resemble the Christ with each passing day.

"Some unfiltered takeaways from the 2016 Presidential Election:

1. Thank God it's finally over.
2. Donald Trump is not the first morally compromised person to become president. Let's not be naïve about that.
3. The flagrant wickedness from both candidates is appalling. Christians who are not willing to admit this should re-read the Bible they claim to rely on.
4. My true character is revealed when I DON'T get my way. Shouting and pouting are not fruits of the Spirit.
5. My true character is revealed when I DO get my way. Boasting and gloating are not fruits of the Spirit.
6. The local church is the hope of the world because it has been given access to the greatest power in the world.
7. America is deeply divided and mortally wounded. No president can heal us. Only one Man can do that.
8. Too many of us are more passionate about politics than we've ever been about knowing God and advancing his kingdom.
9. Making disciples of Jesus is the greatest cause on earth. Until the church in America wakes up to this truth, we'll continue to get the same ole same ole.
10. Thank God it's finally over. "

– Josh Patrick

Think of yourselves the way Christ Jesus thought of himself. He had equal status with God but didn't think so much of himself that he had to cling to the advantages of that status no matter what. Not at all. When the time came, he set aside the privileges of deity and took on the status of a slave, became human! Having become human, he stayed human. It was an incredibly humbling process. He didn't claim special privileges. Instead, he lived a selfless, obedient life and then died a selfless, obedient death—and the worst kind of death at that—a crucifixion. Because of that obedience, God lifted him high and honored him far beyond anyone or anything, ever, so that all created beings in heaven and on earth—even those long ago dead and buried—will bow in worship before this Jesus Christ, and call out in praise that he is the Master of all, to the glorious honor of God the Father.
